For example, if you don't read ? And the Wind Takes ? ? ? ? Time to write the body of the abstract. Your teacher may want it to be at least one page or two or so many words so you can show that you really understood what you have read. It is not only you want to check for spelling and gramatic errors, but you will want to make sure that the description flows from point to point and makes sense. ? ? Whenever you read one or two chapters, ? ? take notes about what you are. Make a list of the characters and your problems and goals. Start reading and make annotations so you have the book in your hands, whether your teacher has assigned you or you even chosen you, you must get a pen and a notebook to stay with you always. You also need to know how long the summary should last. Remember, you ? ? ? ? ? is rewriting the book entirely - "CCO / Ejlinstrom / Pixabay when a teacher or any other person asks you to write a summary of the book, he or she is asking you to read a Book and write a short account that explains the main point points, characters and any important information in their own words. The reader of your resume should understand the book without ever reading it. The ultimate goal is that the reader knows exactly what the book treats, even if it never read it.
